DETAILED ACTION

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the Amendment received on 6-27-07.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 11 and 13-20 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record fails to teach the limitations of the independent claim, including that the system is configured to operate in at least two distinct modes of operation in which said electronic units communicate with the high frequency transmission-reception means, and wherein the low frequency electromagnetic signal comprises selection information indicating to the electronic units, during their passage through an entrance of any of the plurality of delimited spaces, which of the at least two modes of operation should be utilized by the electronic units.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure (See PTO-892).
